It is not clear if the ordinary establishment sanctioned for the Economic Conference cannot do this work. If they can do the work, there is no need to engage separate men only by giving them bonuses. Savings under the head Salaries should not according to Financial Rules be utilised for other Contingent expenditure.

The payment of honoraria for the work is reported to have been sanctd by the President of the Cmtee & the Chairmen of the committees.

(through the Comptroller to Government)

S i r,

I am directed by the Chairman to state that certain bulletins, leaflets, &c., in kannada are issued from time to time by the Agricultural Committee and the Proceedings of the monthly meetings of the Committee have to be translated into kannada and issued.

The procedure of getting the translation work done by payment of honoraria has been approved by the President and the three Chairmen. But there is no - - provision in the current year's budget to meet this item of expenditure. I am therefore to request you to be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for a sum of Rs.500 being utilised for this purpose from the - - - savings under "ESTABLISHMENT(1) PAY & ALLOWANCES OF

SECRETARY

SECRETARY" which has accrued by the Secretary drawing pay as Assistant to the Revenue Commissioner till - - September 4th, last.

The favour of early orders is requested.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K Bhabha

Secretary.
